

THEATRE 473 (3)—Senior Thesis

The Theatre Department requires an approved senior project in the form of creative work or research. The project must be preceded by a preliminary directed individual project in the junior year. Staff.

Fall, Winter, Spring

UNIVERSITY SCHOLARS

PROFESSOR WARREN*

These courses are offered as a part of the University Scholars program. (See Page 84 for a selected list of recent seminar topics.)

UNIVERSITY SCHOLARS 101 (1)—Readings in the Humanities

Pass/Fail only. Open only to members of the University Scholars Program. Reading and discussion of primary sources correlated with the current topic of Honors 201.

Winter (second six weeks)

UNIVERSITY SCHOLARS 200 (1)—Independent Seminar

(Offered when interest is expressed and departmental resources permit.) Pass/Fail only. Open only to members of the University Scholars Program with the permission of the Director of the University Scholars Program. Study and discussion of various topics. May be repeated with permission for a maximum of three credits. Staff.

★UNIVERSITY SCHOLARS 201 (3)—Humanities Seminar

Open only to members of the University Scholars Program. A seminar on a specific topic representing one or more of the humanities. The topic varies from year to year, as does the general education designation.

Spring

★UNIVERSITY SCHOLARS 202 (3 or 4)—Natural Science Seminar

Open only to members of the University Scholars Program. A seminar on a specific topic representing one or more areas in the natural sciences and mathematics. The topic varies from year to year as do the general education designation and number of credits.

Winter

★UNIVERSITY SCHOLARS 203 (3)—Social Science Seminar

Open only to members of the University Scholars Program. A seminar on a specific topic representing one or more areas in the social sciences. The topic varies from year to year as does the general education designation.

Fall

*Director of University Scholars Program